

Memorandum of Understanding

This Memorandum of Understanding is a follow-up of the Memorandum of Understanding between AWWTE (Association of Wastewater Treatment Experts) and ATV (Abwassertechnische Vereinigung) of September 17, 1996, which was renewed by CzWA (The Czech Water Association) and DWA (German Association for Wastewater, Water and Waste) on November 24, 2010.

Both CzWA and DWA are interested to support each other and to cooperate. Common goals and ideas are the basis of this cooperation in the field of water. The areas of understanding and cooperation are mentioned in the following:

- DWA becomes a member of CzWA and vice versa. Membership for both is free of charge. On both parties' homepages, there is a link to the other party.
- DWA will send their magazines KA and KW to CzWA. CzWA will send its magazine Vodni hospodarstvi to DWA. Both parties have the right to translate and publish reports of both parties' magazines in their own. The translation and publication of articles shall be communicated between the parties.
- Delegations from CzWA shall come to Germany for exhibitions Wasser Berlin and IFAT. CzWA may join the booth of DWA. Details such as costs shall be negotiated separately.
- DWA experts are welcome to attend as speakers the biennial CzWA conference "Water" held in the Czech Republic.
- Young Czech engineers may attend the DWA-Young Water Professionals' Programme once a year.
- DWA offers seminars in English language and supports the attendance of CzWA-participants. Details shall be negotiated separately.

This Memorandum of Understanding is valid until December 31, 2016. Half a year in advance both parties will discuss its continuation.
